Melbourne, 6 May 2021 – AIA Australia has become the official Life, Health and Wellbeing Partner of the Fremantle Football Club.

The new partnership will provide members and fans with innovative and inspiring ways to live healthier, longer, better lives. Fremantle supporters will also receive special offers from AIA from time to time.

A life and health insurer with over 48 years of experience, AIA Australia offers a range of products to protect the health and wellbeing of more than 3.8 million Australians.

AIA Australia CEO and Managing Director Damien Mu said “I’m thrilled we have this opportunity to be the club’s official Life, Health and Wellbeing Partner. We know how important footy is for so many people, and so it’s a real privilege to work with Fremantle to inspire their fans and members to take small steps to improve their physical and mental wellbeing.”

The insurer has partnered with multiple AFL clubs in the last year as it considers there is a strong alignment in their values around physical and mental health.

Mu added, “There is a strong connection between AFL and AIA and it has been so rewarding to see and hear about the positive changes occurring through our partnerships with these AFL Clubs. We are eager to kick-start this partnership with the Freo Dockers so that we can broaden our ability to make a difference in people’s lives.”

Club CEO Simon Garlick welcomed AIA Australia to the Fremantle family. “At Fremantle, not only is the health and wellbeing of our players paramount but we see our position as a prominent sporting organisation as a chance to inspire our members and supporters to live healthier, longer and better lives,” Garlick said.

“This is why we’re thrilled to partner with AIA Australia, who are equally committed to their customers as one of Australia’s leading life and health insurers.

“Thanks to AIA Australia, we will have an exciting offer coming soon for our members and supporters, so stay tuned!”
