Melbourne, 20 March 2025. Leading life, health and wellbeing insurer, AIA Australia has confirmed the appointment of Grant Jones as its new General Counsel. An experienced senior lawyer and executive with over 20 years' experience in legal practice and financial services, Mr. Jones was previously the General Counsel at MLC Life Insurance for almost a decade.

Mr. Jones holds commerce and honours law degrees from Macquarie University, with post-graduate qualifications from the Australian National University, and executive education credentials from Harvard Law School. Mr. Jones has previously been recognised as a leading in-house financial services lawyer in the Asia-Pacific region and has led award winning in-house legal teams.

CEO of AIA Australia, Damien Mu said he was thrilled to welcome Mr. Jones to the AIA Australia family.

“Grant’s extensive experience in the financial services industry, including his pivotal work in the customer and regulatory spaces make him an important new member of the AIA Australia executive team.”

“With his demonstrated leadership skills and his recognition of ‘doing the right thing, in the right way’, I am confident that he will provide invaluable support and guidance as we continue working towards our vision for Australia to be the healthiest and best protected nation in the world.”

Mr. Jones said he was excited to help drive meaningful change for AIA Australia’s customers, as well as the broader life and health insurance industries.

“The opportunity to join AIA Australia and make a difference was compelling and I am happy to be part of the team. While the life and health insurance industries continue to evolve significantly, what doesn’t change is the important role we play in ensuring that Australians have certainty and peace of mind for the future.

“It’s been great to kick off 2025 in this new role and hit the ground running. I feel energised by the passion from the AIA Australia family, who work tirelessly to make a positive difference and help Australians lead healthier, longer, better lives.”
