Important Information – Beneficiary Nomination

Binding Nomination (non lapsing)

If you provide a valid and effective non-lapsing binding nomination to the Trustee, the Trustee must pay the death benefit in accordance with your nomination as long as the person that you nominate to receive the benefit (or a share of the benefit) is eligible to receive it at the date of your death and the nomination is valid and effective at the date of your death.

A non-lapsing binding nomination is valid for the entire term you are a member, unless another nomination is lodged with the Trustee or this nomination is revoked by you.

If anyone you nominate is not entitled to receive a share of your benefit, the Trustee has discretion in deciding who will receive the remaining portion of your benefit.

Some conditions apply to non-lapsing binding nominations. They are:

- To be a valid non-lapsing binding nomination it must be signed by you in the presence of two witnesses who must each sign and date the declaration where indicated and set out their full name and date of birth.

Each witness must be over 18 years of age and must not be one of your nominated beneficiaries;

- A nomination is effective only when it is received, and consented to, by the Trustee;
- A non-lapsing binding nomination is valid from the day after it was first signed by you, or last confirmed or amended by you;
- You may revoke or change your nomination at any time by completing a fresh, valid non-lapsing binding nomination and lodging it with the Trustee. You may also change your nomination from binding to non-binding at any time;
- An invalid non-lapsing binding nomination will be treated as a non-binding nomination by the Trustee but will not revoke or replace an existing, valid non-lapsing binding nomination; and
- The Trustee will contact you if your nomination is clearly invalid (completed incorrectly) and will give you the opportunity to re-submit a valid nomination.

Pursuant to the terms of the AIA Insurance Super Scheme No2 trust deed, by making a non-lapsing binding death benefit nomination, you enter into an agreement with Equity Trustees Superannuation Limited the Trustee of the AIA Insurance Super Scheme No2, which will be taken to override any direction you previously gave to the Trustee in relation to a binding death benefit nomination.

Non-binding Nomination

If you provide a non-binding nomination to the Trustee, the Trustee will take your wishes into account, along with all other available information, but has complete discretion in deciding who will receive the benefit payable from the Scheme on your death. The Trustee may pay the death benefit to one or more of your dependants or a person who is in an interdependency relationship with you in whatever shares the Trustee decides or may pay it to your legal personal representative to be distributed as part of your deceased estate.

Some conditions apply to non-binding nominations. They are:

- A non-binding nomination does not need to be witnessed to be a valid nomination;
- A nomination is effective only when it is received, and consented to, by the Trustee;
- A non-binding nomination is valid for the whole time that you are a member of the Scheme, unless you lodge another valid nomination with the Trustee;
- You may revoke or change your nomination at any time by completing a fresh, non-binding nomination and lodging it with the Trustee. You may also change your nomination from non-binding to binding at any time.

Eligible beneficiaries
Dependants	Your spouse and children. For this purpose, 'spouse' means: - a person to whom you are legally married; - a person (whether of the same or a different sex) who, although not legally married to you, lives with you on a genuine domestic basis in a relationship as a couple (de facto); or - a person (whether of the same or a different sex) with whom you are in a relationship that is registered under a relevant law of a State or Territory. - Another person who is financially dependent on you.
Legal Personal Representative	The person acting as executor or administrator of your deceased estate. If paid to your legal personal representative, a death benefit will form part of your deceased estate and be distributed according to your Will (or the laws of intestacy if you don't have a valid Will).
People in an Interdependent relationship	An interdependent relationship will exist if you and other person: - have a close personal relationship; - live together; and - one (or both) of you provides the other with financial support, domestic support and personal care. This may include live-in adult carers of elderly parents and siblings with common finances. Note: Where you have a close personal relationship and either or both of you suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability, the other requirements for an interdependent relationship do not apply.
