4. Updates to Eligible Rollover Fund

Definition	Prior to change	After change
Superannuation Life Cover Plan, Superannuation Income Protection Plan
Membership fees and costs under AIA Insurance Superannuation Scheme No2	Cancellation of your insurance and Scheme membership You can cancel some or all of your insurance cover through the Scheme. Where you cancel all your insurance cover, your membership of the Scheme will also cease, and vice versa. To cancel all your insurance cover and Scheme membership, or cancel some of your insurance cover, you will need to send your written cancellation request by mail, fax or email or in any other manner permitted by law, to us (refer to Section 10.2 for further information about cancelling insurance cover including information about any refund of premiums and cancellation charges that may apply). Once AIA Australia receives your cancellation request we will need to confirm your request with the trustee of the Scheme. The trustee of the Scheme will deal with any amounts refunded on cancellation of your insurance cover in accordance with superannuation tax and preservation rules. Any premium you paid as a superannuation contribution or by way of rollover into the Scheme (less allowable adjustments, for example, for taxes) must usually be preserved and cannot be refunded to you directly unless permitted under superannuation laws. You must provide details of another complying superannuation fund so that the trustee of the Scheme can transfer any preserved money into that fund, otherwise the trustee of the Scheme will transfer any preserved money to the Scheme's nominated ERF or to the ATO – see 'Transfer of Scheme monies' in this section. Cancellation of Scheme membership within cooling-off period The Scheme provides a cooling-off period of 28 days, commencing at the earlier of the day the trustee accepts your application for membership of the Scheme and the end of the 5th day after the date the trustee issues confirmation of your membership. During this period you can cancel your membership of the Scheme by sending your written cancellation request by mail, fax or email or in any other manner permitted by law to us and your insurance cover via the Scheme will also cease. Any premiums you have paid (including the policy fee) will be refunded to the Scheme and, after adjustment for any taxes payable by the trustee, will be in accordance with superannuation tax and preservation rules. You will lose the right to cancel your Scheme membership under the cooling-off regime if you have exercised any right or power under the Scheme (including under a Policy held through the Scheme). This means, for example, that premiums will not be refunded where you have made a claim and your Scheme membership will not cease until your claim (and any benefit payment, if applicable) is finalised. You must provide details of another complying superannuation fund so that the trustee of the Scheme can transfer any preserved money into that fund. Otherwise the trustee of the Scheme will transfer any preserved money to the Scheme's nominated ERF or to the ATO – see 'Transfer of Scheme monies' in this section.	Cancellation of your insurance and Scheme membership You can cancel some or all of your insurance cover through the Scheme. Terminal Illness under Life Cover	Terminal Illness means the diagnosis of an illness which, in the reasonable opinion of an appropriate specialist Medical Practitioner, is likely to result in you passing away within 24 months of the diagnosis regardless of any treatment that may be undertaken. In addition to the above requirements, under a Superannuation Plan a condition will only constitute a Terminal Illness where two Medical Practitioners, one of whom must be a specialist practising in an area related to the condition, must certify that the condition is likely to result in you passing away within 24 months of the date of the certificate (certification period) and for each of the certificates, the certification period must not have ended.	Terminal Illness means the diagnosis of an illness which, in the reasonable opinion of an appropriate specialist Medical Practitioner, is likely to result in you passing away within 24 months of the diagnosis regardless of any treatment that may be undertaken. In addition to the above requirements, under a Superannuation Plan a condition will only constitute a Terminal Illness where two Medical Practitioners, one of whom must be a specialist practising in an area related to the condition, must certify in their reasonable opinion that the condition is likely to result in you passing away within 24 months of the date of the certificate (certification period) and for each of the certificates, the certification period must not have ended.
Change	The wording ‘in their reasonable opinion’ has been added for clarification.
Accidental Death under Accidental Death Cover	Accidental Death means death that results from a physical injury (or combination of physical injuries) caused solely and directly by a violent, accidental and unexpected event and which occurs within six months of the relevant event. A death which is traceable, even indirectly, to your state of mental or physical health before the event, or which results from a Sickness (including a Sickness caused by an Accidental Injury), will not constitute Accidental Death.	Accidental Death means death as a result of a physical injury which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • is caused solely and directly by violent, external and unexpected means; and • would have occurred in the absence of any mental or physical health condition which you were subject to at or prior to the relevant accident event. Death resulting from a Sickness does not constitute ‘Accidental Death’.
Change	The wording ‘accidental’ and ‘indirectly’ have been replaced for clarification. The requirement of the event ‘which occurs within six months’ has been removed.
