Your nomination is subject to the following rules:

- A nominated beneficiary can be a natural person, charity, corporation or trust.
- Conditional nominations cannot be made.
- You may change a nominated beneficiary or revoke a previous nomination at any time prior to a claim event occurring.

- If a nominated beneficiary dies before a claim is made under the policy and no change in nomination has been made, then any money payable will be paid to the nominated beneficiary's legal personal representative.
- If ownership of the policy is assigned to another person or entity, then any previous nomination is automatically superseded (i.e. the nomination is revoked).
- A nominated beneficiary has no rights under the policy, other than to receive the nominated policy proceeds after a claim has been admitted by AIA Australia. He or she cannot authorise or initiate any policy transaction.
