We, AIA Australia Limited, note our commitment to you as the following:

- We will advise you by notice, statement or invoice of the drawings.
- Where the drawing date falls on a non-business day, we will draw the amount on the next business day.
- We will provide written notice of any proposed changes to your drawing arrangement (other than those detailed in your policy conditions), providing no less than 14 days notice.
- We reserve the right to cancel the drawing arrangement if drawings are continually returned unpaid by your nominated financial institution. Where drawings are returned unpaid we will arrange an alternate payment method. A fee may apply for drawings that are returned unpaid.
- We will keep all information provided by you and details of your nominated account at the financial institution, private and confidential.
- We will investigate and deal promptly with any queries, claims or complaints regarding debits, providing a response within 10 business days.

It is your (the customer's) responsibility to:

- Check with your financial institution before completing the direct debit request, that direct debiting is available on your nominated account.
- Ensure that the authorisation on the direct debit request is identical to the account signing instruction held by the financial institution of the nominated account.
- Ensure, at all times, that sufficient funds are available in the nominated account to meet a drawing on the due date for payment.
- Advise us if the account nominated by you to receive the drawings is altered, transferred or closed.
- Arrange with us a suitable alternate payment method, if the drawing arrangements are stopped, either by you or the nominated financial institution.
- Meet any charges resulting from the use of the direct debit system. This may include fees charged to us as a result of returned drawings.

You may request to defer or alter the agreed drawing schedule, by giving written notice to us. Such notice should be received by us at least 14 business days prior to the drawing date.

You may stop your individual debit by giving written notice to us. Such notice should be received by us at least 14 business days prior to the drawing date.

You may cancel the direct debit arrangement at any time by giving written notice to us. Such notice should be received by us at least 14 business days prior to the drawing date. Your nominated financial institution is unable to cancel your direct debit arrangement.

All direct debit transaction disputes, queries and claims should be raised directly with us. We will provide a verbal or written response within 20 business days from the date of the notice. If the claim/dispute is successful, we will reimburse you by way of cheque or electronic credit to your nominated account.
