About JAGGAD

JAGGAD was founded by ex AFL players Chris Judd and Steve Greene. Chris and Steve have shared a close friendship from their school days and have always shared a strong passion for sport. In 2012 they believed there was a gap in the performance apparel market and from that day on they and their team have worked hard to provide the everyday athlete with functional, fashionable and durable performance wear for any and every activity they choose to participate in.

JAGGAD's mission is to help inspire and motivate people to live an active, healthy and well balanced lifestyle.
